The image displays a large grid of 150 rows and 120 columns, used for cross-stitching. The grid is divided into sections by row and column numbers. Each cell in the grid contains a small symbol or icon, which serves as a key for the cross-stitching pattern. The symbols include various geometric shapes, letters, and symbols from different alphabets, arranged in a complex, repeating pattern. The grid is labeled with numbers 80, 90, 100, 110, and 120 along the top and bottom edges, and 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, and 150 along the left and right edges.

The image displays a large grid of 40 rows and 40 columns, used for cross-stitching. The grid is divided into four main sections by vertical lines at columns 80, 90, 100, 110, and 120. The rows are numbered 300, 310, 320, 330, 340, and 350. Each cell in the grid contains a small symbol or character, representing a specific stitch or color for the cross-stitch pattern. The symbols include various geometric shapes, numbers, and symbols like #, v, and o. The grid is intended to be read from right to left, as indicated by the column numbers decreasing from 120 on the right to 80 on the left.
